Section 17. Sanggunian Office. - While not attending sessions, members of the Sangguniang panlalawigan may hold office in the new legislative building at the provincial complex.

RULE – VI

SESSION HALL & SEATS

Section 18. Session Hall.- There shall be a decent session hall where the Sangguniang panlalawigan shall hold sessions which is fixed and located at the 2nd FLOOR OF THE NEW LEGISLATIVE BUILDING, Ipil Heights, Ipil, Zamboanga Sibugay. If the sanggunian decides or ratifies, by two-thirds (2/3) vote of all the members of the sanggunian present, there being a quorum, the conduct of a session outside the designated and fixed session hall, a motion to suspend the rules and authorize the holding of a session in some other place of other than that fixed, is required.

Section 19. Session Hall Distribution & Assignment of Seats. - Except the seats assigned to the floor leader and the assistant floor leader, the seats in the session hall shall be distributed by lot among the members.

Section 20. Exclusiveness. - The session hall shall be used exclusively for the sessions of the Sangguniang panlalawigan. It cannot be used for other purposes without the consent of the Sangguniang Panlalawigan through the secretary to the sanggunian who is duly authorized to decide on the matter.

RULE – VII

SESSIONS

Section 21. Session. – The Sangguniang Panlalawigan shall conduct at least four (4) regular sessions in a month pursuant to law and which shall be held on every Tuesday and shall commence at exactly 10:00 O'clock in the morning. However, if Tuesday is declared as non-working holiday or when successive holidays are declared which commences on Tuesday the session shall be conducted on the next working day.

Section 22. Special Session. -When public interest so demand, special session may be called by the provincial governor or by a majority of the members of the Sangguniang panlalawigan in accordance with the pertinent provisions of Paragraph 2 (a) of Article 105, Rule XVII of the Rules and Regulations Implementing Republic Act No. 7160.

Section 23. Sanggunian Session - All sessions of the Sangguniang panlalawigan shall be open to the public. When public interest demand or for security, decency, or morality reasons, a closed-door session may be ordered by an affirmative vote of the majority of the members present, there being a quorum. No two (2) sessions, either regular or special, may be held in a single day. In the case of a special session, a written notice to the members shall be served personally at the member's office or usual place of residence at least twenty-four (24) hours before the special session is held. Unless, otherwise concurred in by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present, there being a quorum, no other matters may be considered at a special session except those stated and specifically indicated in the notice.

Section 24. Call to Order - The presiding officer shall open the session of the Sangguniang panlalawigan by banging the gavel and calling the session to order.

Section 25. The Journal. -The journal shall be the official record of the deliberations undertaken and the details of the proceedings of the Sangguniang Panlalawigan sessions, either regular or special. It shall be kept and forms part of the legislative records of the province which may be published upon resolution of the Sangguniang Panlalawigan adopted for the purpose. The Journal or minutes of the sanggunian proceedings, the resolutions adopted, and the ordinances enacted shall be prepared by the Chief of Staff of the Session Secretariat of the Office of the Secretary to the Sanggunian and certified to as such by the provincial secretary or his duly authorized or designated representative.

PROVINCE OF SIBUGAY
AUTHENTICATED
OSSEC
Date: 21-10