Section 28. Calendar of Business – The calendar of business shall consist of the following parts:

(a) Unassigned Business - Proposed ordinances, resolutions and other measures reported out by concerned committees or any urgent matter not calendared earlier. Any business included in this part of calendar may be set for consideration on motion of a member with unanimous approval of the members present, there being a quorum.

(b) Unfinished Business - Business being considered by the Sangguniang panlalawigan at the time of its adjournment. Its consideration shall be presumed until such unfinished business is disposed of. Thereafter, the presiding officer shall call for the business for the day.

(c) Business For The Day - (matters for second reading) – Proposed ordinances, resolutions and other measures set on the calendar for consideration on that day to be considered in the order in which they are listed in the calendar.

(d) All measures for consideration in SECOND READING shall pass the following:

A. PERIOD OF SPONSORSHIP.

1. The principal author shall be recognized and be given the opportunity to explain the measure.

2. The concerned committee shall be allowed to explain their findings and recommendations as basis for their endorsement for approval of the measure.

B. PERIOD OF INTERPELLATION.

Interpellation shall proceed in the following order of preference:

1. Inquiry
2. Comments
3. Remarks

The sponsor/author/concerned committee shall answer or respond to the inquiry, comments, or remarks raised during interpellation but no debate or argumentations shall be allowed. All inquiries, comments, and remarks made including the answers and responses shall only be noted and recorded.

C. PERIOD OF AMENDMENT.

1. Specify the desired amendment
2. Interpellation
3. Voting process (for and against the amendment)

D. PERIOD OF OBJECTION.

When the measure or the measure as amended is objected to, the following process shall be observed:

1. Determination of the number of speakers (negative and affirmative) and the time limit each speaker is entitled;

2. DEBATE PROPER; and

3. Division of the House (when necessary to ascertain accuracy of the vote by acclamation)

3.1. The manner of voting shall be decided by the body whether by roll call, hand raising, standing, or secret balloting.

JUL 01 2025

By: PROVINCE OF SIBUGAY AUTHENTICATED OSSEC Date: 7-1-25