E. FINAL APPROVAL.

1. Reading of the measure as approved in its original form or amended one.

2. FINAL VOTING. (Division of the House when necessary to ascertain accuracy of the vote by acclamation or when a member is dissatisfied with the result of the voting)

Section 29. Distribution of Calendar – The sanggunian Order and Calendar of Business shall be distributed by the steering committee or the Chief of Staff of the Session Secretariat at least a day before the scheduled session or at least an hour before the actual session when urgent executive matters are included. When there is addition (urgent executive matters only) to the one previously distributed minutes before the session starts, a note to this effect on the order of business shall be sufficient.

RULE – IX

THE LEGISLATIVE PROCESS

Section 30. Ordinance and Resolution - Legislative actions of a general and permanent character shall be enacted in the form of ordinances, while those which are temporary in character shall be passed in the form of resolutions. Matters relating to proprietary functions and private concerns and expression of collegial sentiments or declarations shall also be acted upon by a resolution

Section 31. Draft Ordinance and Resolution, Submission Requirements - The submission of a draft resolution or ordinance by the proponent with the Office of the Secretary shall be mandatory. The Office of the Secretary is mandated to refuse or deny due course of all proposed resolutions/ordinances not in the draft form as herein required and provided. Unless voluntarily undertaken, DILG Opinion No. 59 s. 2008 dated July 25, 2008 opined that the Secretary to the Sanggunian can lawfully refuse to make draft resolution or ordinances.

The text of the draft ordinance and resolution shall be numbered correspondingly for easy correction, amendment, or modification. It shall be submitted to the Session Secretariat Receiving Unit (SSRU) on or before twelve o'clock (12:00) of every Thursday of the week before the succeeding regular session otherwise it shall be refused acceptance, except urgent executive measures proposed and emanating from the Office of the Governor.

Section 32. Essential Parts of Ordinances and Resolutions - Proposed or draft ordinances and resolutions shall be in writing, the text numbered correspondingly, shall contain an assigned number, a title or caption, an enacting or ordaining clause and the date of its proposed effectivity. In addition, every proposed ordinance shall be accompanied by a brief explanatory note containing the justification for its approval. It shall be signed by the author or authors and submitted to the steering committee and to the Office of the Secretary to the Sanggunian who shall report the same to the Sangguniang panlalawigan on its next session.

Section 33. First Reading – (a) The Chief of Staff, or any duly authorized representative, of the Session Secretariat of the Office of the Secretary to the Sanggunian shall report all proposed ordinances and resolutions to the Sangguniang panlalawigan for first reading.

(b) The first reading of a proposed ordinance or resolution shall only be by title and, thereafter, the same shall be referred to the appropriate committee, except when a motion to suspend the rules, by majority vote of all the members present, there being a quorum, is presented and approved it as urgent measure it shall be considered immediately, provided, that in the case of an ordinance it shall observe and comply with the three-reading rule requirement provided by law.

(c) An erroneous referral of a proposed ordinance or resolution may be corrected immediately after the approval of the minutes or journal.

By: PROVINCE OF SIBUGAY AUTHENTICATED OSSEC Date: 7-17-24