Section 43. Veto Power of the Provincial Governor - (a) The provincial governor may veto any particular item or items of an appropriation ordinance (line-item approval), an ordinance or resolution adopting a local development plan and public investment program, or an ordinance directing the payment of money or creating liability. In such case, the veto shall not affect the item or items which are not objected to. The vetoed item or items shall not take effect unless the sanggunian overrides the veto in the manner herein provided; otherwise, the item or items in the appropriation ordinance of the previous year corresponding to those vetoed, if any, shall be deemed reenacted. The provincial governor may veto an ordinance only once.

Section 44. Effectivity of Ordinances or Resolutions. - (a) Unless other-wise stated in the ordinance or the resolution approving the local development plan and public investment program, the same shall take effect after ten (10) days from the date a copy thereof is posted in a bulletin board at the entrance of the provincial capitol or in at least two (2) other conspicuous places in the local government unit concerned.

(b) The secretary to the sanggunian concerned shall cause the posting of an ordinance or resolution in the bulletin board at the entrance of the provincial capitol and in the municipal or barangay hall in at least two (2) conspicuous places in the local government unit concerned not later than five (5) days after approval thereof.

The text of the ordinance or resolution shall be disseminated and posted in Filipino or English and in the language or dialect understood by the majority of the people in the local government unit concerned, and the secretary to the sanggunian shall record such fact in a book kept for the purpose, stating the dates of approval and posting.

(c) The gist of all ordinances with penal sanctions shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation within the province where the local legislative body concerned belongs. In the absence of any newspaper of general circulation within the province, posting of such ordinances shall be made in all municipalities and cities of the province where the sanggunian of origin is situated.

Section 45. Enforcement of Disapproved Ordinance or Resolutions - Any attempt to enforce any ordinance or any resolution approving the local development plan and public investment program, after the disapproval thereof, shall be sufficient ground for the suspension or dismissal of the official or employee concerned.

Section 46. Review Power of the Sangguniang Panlalawigan - Within thirty (30) days after the receipt of the copies of the approved ordinance, resolutions approving and adopting the local development plans and public investment programs, and the executive order issued or promulgated by the municipal mayor, the Sangguniang panlalawigan shall examine the documents or transmit the same to the Provincial Legal Office (PLO), or to the Provincial Prosecutor's Office (PPO) who shall, within fifteen (15) days from receipt of the documents, inform the Sangguniang panlalawigan of his written comments or recommendation which may be considered by the Sangguniang panlalawigan in making its decision.

(b) If the Sangguniang panlalawigan finds that an ordinance, resolution or executive order is beyond the power conferred upon the Sangguniang Bayan or the mayor, it shall declare such ordinance, resolution, or executive order invalid in whole or in part. The Sangguniang panlalawigan shall enter its action upon the minutes and shall advise the corresponding municipal authorities of the action it has taken. The action of the Sangguniang panlalawigan shall be final and executory.

(c) The text of the ordinance or resolutions shall be disseminated and posted in Filipino or English and in the language or dialect understood by the majority of the people in the province and the Secretary to the sanggunian shall record such fact in a book kept for the purpose, stating the dates of approval and posting.

(d) Ordinances with penal sanctions shall be posted at conspicuous places in the provincial capitol for a minimum period of three (3) consecutive weeks. Such ordinances shall also be published in a newspaper of general circulation where available, within the territorial jurisdiction of the province. Unless otherwise provided therein, said ordinances shall take effect on the day
