following its publication or at the end of the period of posting, whichever occurs later. The Office of the Secretary to the Sanggunian shall transmit official copies of such ordinances to the chief executive of the Official Gazette within seven (7) days following the approval of said ordinance from publication.

RULE - X

DECORUM AND DEBATE

Section 47. Manner of Addressing the Chair- When a member desires to speak, he shall rise and respectfully address the Chair by saying "Mr. Chairman" or "Mr. Presiding Officer".

Section 48. Recognition of Member to Speak- When two or more members rises at the same time, the presiding officer shall determine and recognize the member who is to speak first upon motion of the floor leader.

Section 49. Time Limit for Speeches - No member shall occupy more than fifteen (15) minutes in debate on any question or to speak for more than once on any question without leave of the sanggunian, except as hereinafter provided. The period of interpellation shall not be counted against the time of the member speaking. Time limit for speeches may be shortened or extended by a simple majority vote of its members.

Section 50. Sponsor/Author to Open and Close Debate - The member reporting a measure under consideration from a committee may open and close the debate thereon. If the debate extends beyond one session, a speaker is entitled to an additional fifteen (15) minutes to close.

Section 51. Decorum to Open and Debate- (a) In all cases, the member who has obtained the floor shall confine himself to the question under debate and avoiding personalities. He shall refrain from uttering words or performing acts which are inconsistent with decorum.

(b) If it is requested that a member be called to order for words uttered on debate, the member making such request shall indicate the words uttered which shall be taken down in writing by the Chief of Staff of the Session Secretariat and shall be read aloud. The member who uttered such words shall not be held to answer nor be subjected to censure by the Sanggunian if further debate or other business has intervened.

Section 52. Conduct During Sessions– (a) During sessions, the members shall be in a proper attire (long sleeves barong) and observe proper decorum.

(b) While the presiding officer is addressing the sanggunian or putting a question, no member shall walk out or cross the session hall.

(c) The following penalties shall be imposed for tardiness and late attendance, failure to wear the prescribed uniform, and absent without justifiable reason.

1. Failure to wear prescribed uniform - Php 500.00

2. Absent without justifiable reason - Php 500.00
   (15 minutes late upon roll call is considered absent for purposes of imposition of fine)

Prescribed uniform:

a) Barong Tagalog (long sleeve); or

b) Filipiniana (formal attire) dress or blouse for ladies.

The presiding officer shall designate personnel from the Office of the Secretary to the Sanggunian to demand, collect, and receive, the penalty aforestated and shall keep the same for whatever purpose the sanggunian may decide later. A majority written consent of all the members of the sanggunian shall be required for the utilization of the said funds. Audit and inventory of the said funds may be conducted quarterly or upon written request of any member of the sanggunian addressed to the presiding officer.

PROVINCE OF SIBUGAY AUTHENTICATED
OSSEC
Date: 7-7-23