1. All members have equal rights, privileges and obligations;
2. A quorum must be present for the body to act and that the general rule is that a majority of the entire sanggunian must be present in order to transact business;
3. Full and free discussion of every motion is a basic right;
4. Only one question at a time may be considered, and only one person may have the floor at any one time;
5. Members have a right to know what the immediately pending question is and to have it restated before a vote is taken;
6. No person can speak until recognized by the chair. Personal remarks are always out of order;
7. A majority decides a question except when basic rights of members are involved;
8. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of all members present, there being a quorum, is required for any motion that deprives a member of rights in any way (e.g., cutting off debate);
9. Silence gives consent. Those who do not vote allow the decision to be made by those who do vote;
10. The chair should always remain impartial;
11. Debate must address issues not personalities;
12. All remarks must be addressed to the chair;
13. No member may speak a second time until every member who wishes to speak has had the opportunity to do so;
14. No member can speak more than ten minutes or as fixed by the body;

16. No one is permitted to make personal attacks or question the motives of other speakers;
17. The presiding officer must relinquish the chair in order to participate in debate and cannot reassume the chair until the pending main question is disposed of;
18. Rules of debate can be changed by a two-thirds vote; and
19. Motion to suspend the rules requires majority vote all the members present, there being a quorum.
