(DTR) of services rendered thereunder for being not considered government service and not subject to Civil Service Laws (Section 1, Rule XI of the CSC Omnibus Rules on Appointments and Other Personnel Action pursuant to Paragraph 2 and 3, Section 12, Book V of Administrative Code of 1987 otherwise known as Executive Order No. 292).

b) That officers and employees of the legislative department who have incurred tardiness and undertime regardless of the number of minutes per day, exceeding ten times a month for two (2) consecutive months in a semester shall be subject to disciplinary action (Section 8, Rule XVII of the Omnibus Rules Implementing Book V of Executive Order No. 292 and other Pertinent Civil Service Laws, as amended by CSC Memo Circular No. 19, s. 1999).

c) Extend, when the interest of public service so requires, the daily hours of work for officers and employees in the legislative department which extension shall be fixed in accordance with the nature of the work. Provided, that work in excess of eight (8) hours must be properly compensated (Section 10, Rule XVII of the Omnibus Rules Implementing Book V of Executive Order No. 292 and other Pertinent Civil Service Laws).

(4) Assume the office of the governor for the unexpired term of the latter in the event of permanent vacancy as provided for in Section 44, Book I of republic Act No. 7160;

(5) Exercise the powers and perform the duties and functions of the governor in cases of temporary vacancy as provided for in Section 46, Book I of this Code;

(6) Exercise such other powers and perform such other duties and functions as may be prescribed by law or ordinance (section 466 of R.A. 7160).

Section 6. The Temporary Presiding Officer (Pro Tempore), Floor Leader, and the Assistant Floor Leaders - In the absence of the vice-governor/presiding officer, Hon. Glenn C. Sabijon shall act as the temporary presiding officer in his capacity as designated Presiding Officer (Pro Tempore), and in the event of the absence of both the vice governor and pro tempore, the members present and constituting a quorum shall elect from among themselves a temporary presiding officer for the time being. The temporary presiding officer shall certify within ten (10) days from the passage of the ordinance enacted and resolutions adopted by the sanggunian in the session over which he temporarily presided.

There shall be a floor leader and assistant floor leaders who shall be elected by the members of the Sangguniang Panlalawigan from among themselves. For this purpose, the 9th SP designated Hon. Jonathan C. Yambao and Atty. Eldwin M. Alibutdan, as floor leader and assistant floor leader, respectively, of the 9th Sangguniang Panlalawigan. The floor leader, with the assistance of the assistant floor leader, shall implement the agenda prepared by the steering committee for the sessions of the Sangguniang Panlalawigan. They shall guide the proceedings and the deliberations during sessions that it will be conducted with order, dignity, and decorum. They shall decide the order of speakers to ensure exhaustive discussion of all matters and proposals requiring consideration of the Sangguniang Panlalawigan. They shall further perform such other functions and duties as are performed by the same or similar officials under accepted parliamentary practices or as the sanggunian may direct. The Floor leader shall be the ex-officio chairman of the steering committee.

Section 7. The Secretary to the Sanggunian; Functions and Duties. The Secretary to the Sanggunian shall be appointed in accordance with law and shall properly exercise the powers and duties vested upon him by the pertinent provisions of Republic Act No. 7160 and other related laws, rules, and regulations. The Secretary to the Sanggunian shall serve as the liaison officer or official intermediary in order to maintain the unity of action between the executive and the legislative department for the welfare, common good, and benefit of the people of the province. The chief of staff of the session secretariat which is duly authorized by the secretary to the sanggunian shall be responsible in transcribing and recording of the sanggunian proceedings during regular or special sessions and in the preparation of the journal or minutes of the proceedings for sanggunian consideration and approval on the next scheduled session day.

By:
PROVINCE OF SIBUGAY
AUTHENTICATED
OSSEC
Date: 7-1-24