Section 8. The Sergeant-at-Arms: Functions and Duties. There shall be a sergeant-at-arms who shall be appointed in accordance with law or designated by the presiding officer from among the personnel of the Office of the Vice-Governor or the Office of the Secretary to the Sanggunian which shall be assisted by at least two (2) members of the Philippine National Police (PNP) to be detailed in the sanggunian session hall during regular or special session or during committee or public hearing days upon request of the sanggunian in a form of a resolution or upon a written request of the provincial vice-governor addressed to the PNP provincial director, with the following functions and duties, viz:

a) To attend to the sessions of the Sangguniang Panlalawigan and the meetings and public hearings conducted by sanggunian committees when held in the office of the members of the Sangguniang Panlalawigan.

b) To maintain order under the direction of the presiding officer of the Sangguniang Panlalawigan or its committees, and in the discharge of such duty, exercise supervision and control over all security officers and personnel of the Sangguniang Panlalawigan and the members of the sanggunian as well as the enforcement agents assisting the Sangguniang Panlalawigan.

c) To execute all orders of the Sangguniang panlalawigan and its committees and serve all process issued under their authority.

d) To ensure that unauthorized persons are not permitted or allowed to enter or stay within the space reserved for the exclusive use of members of the Sangguniang Panlalawigan and of its officers and employees on duty during any session or committee meeting or public hearing conducted when held in the sanggunian session hall or in the office of the members of the Sangguniang Panlalawigan.

e) To be responsible for the behavior of employees under his immediate supervision and the faithful performance of their functions and duties.

f) To strictly enforce all regulations relating to privileges and the admission to the session hall or its corridors.

g) To secure the safety of the members of the Sangguniang panlalawigan while in session or conducting committee hearings, and perform such other functions as may be directed by the presiding officer of the Sangguniang panlalawigan.

Section 9. The Mace - The sergeant-at-arms under the Office of the Sanggunian Secretary shall have custody of the Mace which is the symbol of the authority of the Sangguniang Panlalawigan. The mace shall be displayed beside or at the center of the presiding officer's rostrum when the Sangguniang Panlalawigan is in session. The mace shall serve as the warrant for the sergeant-at-arms in enforcing order in the Sangguniang panlalawigan.

RULE – IV

STANDING COMMITTEES

Section 10. Standing Committees.- For the effective and efficient operation of the Sangguniang Panlalawigan in its legislative functions, the following committees are hereby created, to wit;

10.1 APPROPRIATIONS - All matters pertaining or relating to all funds for provincial government expenditures, payments of indebtedness, determination of salaries, wages, allowances and all other benefits; all matters relating to appropriation of funds, the payment of statutory, contractual and other obligations, monetary and other similar claims against the provincial government and all other matters of similar nature authorized by law.

10.2 RULES, ORDINANCES & RESOLUTIONS - all matters relating to ordinances, expropriations, resolutions and codes and other policies of the province; all matters relating to the Rules and Procedures of the Sanggunian; the Calendar of Business and Order of Business, the creation

JUL 0 1 2025

By: PROVINCE OF SIBUGAY AUTHENTICATED OSSEC Date: 7-1-25